DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I, claims 1-8, in the reply filed on February 26, 2009 is acknowledged.

Priority

2. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Information Disclosure Statement

3. The information disclosure statement filed May 13, 2005 has been fully considered. An initialed copy of said IDS is enclosed herein.

Drawings

4. The drawings filed May 13, 2005 are accepted.

Specification

5. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it is not filed on a separate sheet. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).
6. The specification is objected to because it does not contain a brief description of the drawings.
7. The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

Art Unit: 1794

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) THE NAMES OF THE PARTIES TO A JOINT RESEARCH AGREEMENT.
- (e) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC.
- (f) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (g) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (h) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (i) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (j) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (l) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

8. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

9. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The claim states the intermediate layer comprises an olefinic polymer "containing a metallocene." It is unclear whether a metallocene catalyst must be present or if the claim is referring to a metallocene catalyzed olefinic resin.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

10. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hanoka (US 6,114,046) in view of Zenko et al (US 20020038664).

Hanoka teaches a solar cell module comprising a laminate; the laminate comprises an ionomeric layer, a metallocene catalyzed polyethylene layer, a metallocene catalyzed polyethylene layer, and an ionomer layer (Figure 1). The ionomeric layer reads on the claimed wear layer, the two polyethylene layers read on the claimed substrate and intermediate layers.

With regards to claim 6, the second ionomeric layer is understood to read on the substrate and the two polyethylene layers are understood to read on the claimed intermediate and additional layers.

Hanoka does not teach the polyethylene layers should comprise low density polyethylene in amounts of 1-40wt%. However, teaches a solar cell module wherein the encapsulate comprises LDPE (0088) and acrylic resin wherein the LDPE is included in amounts of 10:100 (see examples) . Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to utilize the encapsulate of Hanoka comprising acrylic and LDPE as the encapsulate taught in Hanoka because said compositions are known in the art to be useful as encapsulates for solar cell modules. Furthermore, it would have been obvious to catalyze the LPDE with metallocene because Hanoka teaches such polymers have improved clarity and mechanical strength (col 5, lines 25+).

11. Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hanoka (US 6,114,046) in view of Zenko et al (US 20020038664), as applied to claims 1-7 above, and further in view of JP-0923018.

Hanoka is relied upon as above but does not teach a polyurethane may be applied to the ionomeric layer. However, JP-018 teaches the application of a polyurethane to a solar cell module substrate in order to eliminate the need for glass layers (see abstract and column 2, lines 30+ of Hanoka). Therefore, it would have been obvious to the skilled artisan at the time the invention was made to add a polyurethane layer to the ionomer layer of Hanoka in order to eliminate the need for glass layers.
